Smarter Balanced

1. TA Certification Course

Test administrators are required to complete the online TA Certification Course for the 2017-18 school year in order to administer statewide assessments, including the Smarter Balanced Interim Assessments. Test coordinators, test administrators, and teachers may log in and access the course by clicking here (login required), or by clicking on the Online TA Certification Course button found on the Training Sites section of the alohahsap.org portal.

2. Hawaii Common Core Item Authoring Training Registration

Registration is now open for the Fall 2017 Hawaii Common Core Item Authoring Training. Please click the button on the right-hand side of the Smarter Balanced home page to access the online registration form, or click here to access the form directly. Additional information about the training can be found in the official HIDOE announcement memo here.

3. School Contacts List

The deadline for updating the School Contacts List on the HIDOE Intranet is August 25, 2017. Principals and test coordinators should review their School Contacts List on the HIDOE Intranet (login required) and update any changes as needed (test coordinators, ACCESS for ELLs test coordinators, technology coordinators, etc.). Staff members who are no longer in these roles should be deleted from this list so they do not receive emails that no longer apply to them. Updating this list will ensure that the appropriate people will get the Assessment News, email updates, and other statewide testing communications in a timely fashion.

HSA-Alt

4. HSA-Alt Student Scores

Student scores for the HSA-Alt Spring 2017 ELA and Mathematics operational assessments are available in the Online Reporting System (ORS). The updated cut scores for all HSA-Alt assessments are available here and the updated Performance Level Descriptors (PLDs) for the ELA and Math assessments are available here for ELA and here for Math. State Aggregates will be displayed once they have been calculated.
